

MONEMVASIA

Excursion Program

We depart at 06:00 in the morning from Chalkida with our usual coffee stop, and we will arrive at the most dreamy place in Greece, Monemvasia. The castle, the cobblestone winding cobblestone streets, the hammams, the fountains, the rich merchants' mansions, the old low arches, the arches, and the dozens of Byzantine churches make up the most interesting castle town in the country, a castle town that seems to have been untouched by the passage of time. Houses, Venetian mansions, and alleys carved into the rock like sculptures, make Monemvasia the so-called "Gibraltar of the East," this unique medieval settlement of the Peloponnese. The magic of this castle town is unique. It captivates you to wander the alleys in a city that looks like a set, while you think that knights and ladies with crinolines will suddenly appear. Free time for exploration and getting to know the city. Stay for lunch. Then early in the afternoon, we will take the road back to the beautiful Chalkida, filled with beautiful images from this unique place.
