

Lisbon, Sintra Cascais Estoril

Itinerary

Day 1: Chalkida - Athens - Lisbon

Gather at the airport and take a direct flight to Lisbon, the capital of Portugal, built on the seven hills of the Tagus River. Arrive in the birthplace of fado with its narrow, picturesque alleys, houses with tiled roofs, and facades decorated with colorful tiles. Transfer, check-in at the hotel. For an initial acquaintance with the city, walk to Placa Rossio, where the heart of Lisbon beats loudly, indulge in gastronomic delights, and let yourself be carried away by the intense rhythms.

Day 2: Lisbon

Our tour today is dedicated to the picturesque and welcoming city, which still maintains its Latin glorious character. One of the city's most famous attractions is the Museum of the Royal Carriages, where we can admire a unique collection of luxury and wealth dating from the 17th to 19th centuries. Our next stop is the Jeronimos Monastery, the most impressive symbol of Portuguese power and wealth. We will then visit the Monument of the Discoveries and the iconic Belem Tower, built in 1515 near the Tagus River to protect the river's estuary and has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site, from which the Portuguese sailors set out to the farthest reaches of the earth. In the afternoon, wander the narrow cobblestone streets of the medieval Alfama neighborhood to St. George's Castle for panoramic views of Lisbon. We recommend that you enjoy traditional Portuguese fado songs, which became known worldwide by the famous singer Amalia Rodrigues.

Day 3: Lisbon Free Day (optional excursion to Fátima - Óbidos, Nazaré)

Breakfast at the hotel and free day. You can visit the Nations Park, which was created in 1998 for the EXPO international exhibition, and admire the Vasco da Gama Bridge, the longest in Europe at 17km. We suggest a trip to the great center of Catholicism, Fatima, the beautiful medieval village of artists Obidos, and the tourist fishing village of the Atlantic, Nazaré. In the afternoon, we return to Lisbon where you can enjoy shopping in the city's large shopping centers.

Day 4: Lisbon (Sintra – Cascais – Estoril)

After breakfast, we depart for a pleasant excursion to the outskirts of Lisbon. Our first stop is Sintra, the summer residence of the kings, a city that abounds in natural beauty and is characterized by its historical and cultural heritage. The Royal Palace dominates the top of a green mountain. Then we will pass through Cascais, a traditional fishing village that develops next to the capital and Estoril, the resort of all times, which is considered one of the most important tourist spots worldwide and offers various activities such as a golf course, a racing track and one of the largest casinos in Europe. Our last visit is the westernmost point of Europe, Cabo da Roca. Return to Lisbon.
