

Trikala - Meteora - Kalabaka

Excursion Program

Day 1: Chalkida - I.M. of Agios Athanasios Omvriaki - Kalabaka

We depart at 07:00 in the morning from our Chalkida, where we make an intermediate stop for a necessary cup of coffee and rest, and arrive at the Holy Monastery of Saint Athanasios Omvriaki in Domokos. This is a Byzantine-style church with decoration according to the Byzantine system. Although the church has suffered serious damage in the past, it still stands out for the grandeur and respect inspired by its interior. The narthex of the church, which depicts the second coming and other historical and religious events of the Holy Bible, as well as the frescoes of the interior of the church, works of the hagiographers, George, George and John from the village of Maurilos, as evidenced by the inscription above the entrance, inside the church, are of great interest. Free time for pilgrimage. We then board the bus and continue our journey to the hotel where we will first enjoy our lunch at a traditional tavern. Settling in and resting. In the late afternoon, we will meet in the lounge where we will go on a night out in the decorated Trikala, where of course we will not miss to visit the once decorated and illuminated Mill of the Elves. The most enchanting Christmas theme park in Greece, which is transformed into a fairytale world with elves, fir trees, Christmas markets and activities for everyone. We will have free time to enjoy our stroll on the pedestrian street and of course by the river. Here we will enjoy our wine and our dinner. Return to the hotel and overnight stay.

Day 2: Kalabaka - Meteora - Trikala

After we have our breakfast and pack our bags, we leave for Meteora. The sight of the towering dark rocks is awe-inspiring. Nestled in the peaks and caves since the 11th century, the Meteora monasteries are located. Using ropes, nets, or their bare hands, the monks established a centuries-old tradition: climbing. Free time for pilgrimage. The monastery of Agios Stefanos, is the closest to the city of Kalabaka and the most easily accessible. Founded by Antonio Kantakouzenos, the son of Despot of Epirus Nikephoros II, in 1400 AD. The monastery, in addition to the chapel of Saint Stephen, also has the chapel of Saint Charalambos, which houses his relics, believed to cure illnesses. We then depart for a final visit to Trikala, where we will also stay for lunch. Departure for Chalkida at 5:00 PM, filled with beautiful images and the scent of Christmas...!!!
