

Tripoli's Fairytale Christmas Village

Itinerary

Departure from Chalkida at 9:30, with a short stop at Artemisio for a much-needed coffee break and some rest. We will then continue our journey to the beautiful and historic city of Tripoli, to enjoy the festive atmosphere that makes Christmas shine even brighter, spreading golden magic all around. And what better place to experience that than the fairytale Christmas Village of Tripoli? During this season, Areos Square transforms into a scene straight out of a snowy Scandinavian town. Here, everything is playful, delicious, and warm — for both young and old. By night, the lights create a spectacular scene, inviting us to walk through illuminated tunnels and touch the giant Christmas tree in the center of the square.

A funfair awaits with endless games and attractions — don't miss the view from the Ferris wheel, where you can admire the entire magical setting from above!

There are also free activities for young children in specially designed wooden cabins. Of course, Santa Claus will be waiting in his cozy little house to hear your Christmas wishes and take memorable photos together.

But the magic doesn't stop there! Irresistible treats await in the charming wooden stalls — like loukoumades (Greek donuts), chocolate chimneys, and much more. For the grown-up “kids,” there's warm mulled wine, with its rich aromas creating a festive celebration in your glass and on your palate.

Optional lunch stop in Tegea.

Finally, we will begin our return journey, filled with wonderful moments and festive memories!
